This past summer, AIISF celebrated the completion of the first Immigrant Heritage Wall on Angel Island, with 182 granite plaques honoring immigrants who came to build America. All proceeds are supporting AIISF programs, including a new multimedia exhibit that shares the stories of our immigrant ancestors.

The second phase of the Immigrant Heritage Wall will add 102 granite plaques on a wall across from the immigration barracks, next to the stairway that leads to the historic hospital building and a few feet away from the original wall. All proceeds will go toward improvements at Angel Island State Park and to the campaign to restore the hospital building into a museum that will tell the story of Pacific Coast immigration.

Donors will be able to contribute toward a 7" x 6" granite plaque for $2,500 or a 14" x 12" plaque for $5,000. AIISF staff will be available to help donors develop the text for their plaques.

An application is available on the other side of this page. For more information, please contact Grant Din at AIISF at 415-262-4433 or email gdin@aiisf.org.

Both walls designed by Daniel Quan Design. Plaque designs by Elaine Joe.
